

December PAST & PRESENT at the Southampton Historical Museum

NOVEMBER 16TH – JANUARY 7TH

The Southampton Historical Museum is exploring once again the history of winter celebrations with their exhibition “DECEMBER PAST & PRESENT.” Our Parish through the imagination and elegant taste of Greta Nikiteas, is part of this history of winter celebrations which, for us, centers around the great feasts of Christmas, St. Basil and Epiphany. With the help of many volunteers, they are creating alcoves that will show how East Enders have decorated and baked for their family gatherings. Trees, icons, gifts and breads are all part of our own multi-ethnic community.

From the Shinnecock Nation to an English fireside, they invite you to explore the festive traditions of Southampton. Using oral histories and treasured family heirlooms, of the Native American, Greek, Irish, Polish, Italian, Croatian, Jewish, African, American, English, German and Latin American folkways will fascinate you.

Free Admission—you can visit the exhibit from November 16th - January 7th.
